Introduction

1. Nepal Bharat Maitri Vidyalaya is an icon of friendship between Nepal and India. The school caters to look after the educational needs of wards of brave Nepalese Ex-Servicemen and serving Gorkha soldiers of the Indian Army. This is a welfare institution run by Devrec Wing under the Embassy of India, Kathmandu and is headed by the Ambassador of India to Nepal.

Background

2. The school started functioning from 17th July 2000. Since then the school has been expanding and have created its own mark in Pokhara valley. The motto of the school is: "STRENGTH, KNOWLEDGE, COURAGE and our mission is: "TO BRING OUT THE EXCELLENCE IN EACH CHILD TO MEET THE GLOBAL CHALLENGES OF 21ST CENTURY"

Aim and Objective

3. Nepal Bharat Maitri Vidyalaya caters to fulfill the educational needs of wards of Ex-servicemen and serving soldiers, shaping them to face challenging needs of 21st century. The Vidyalaya is designed to act as a "Citadel of Learning" and harbinger of "quality consciousness" and is committed to develop the mind and initiative of the children at affordable price. The endeavor of the school is:

(a) To provide quality education through reputed curriculum and experienced academicians with individual guidance and motivating influences.
(b) To provide maximum exposure to real life situations and awaken the consciousness of each youth.
(c) To bring-out the inherent goodness and intelligence through multifaceted activities.
